

CentralHouston

Job Position: Director of Finance Central Houston, Inc.

Central Houston, Inc. is an advocate for downtown's development and revitalization. Central Houston, in association with its affiliated entities – the Houston Downtown Management District, the Downtown Redevelopment Authority, and Central Houston Civic Improvement, Inc., has facilitated many of the public and private projects that have transformed downtown since the mid-1980's.

Central Houston, Inc. works with its membership, consisting of leaders in the business community, to provide research, planning and advocacy to encourage economic development and improve the quality of life in downtown.

The Houston Downtown Management District levies an assessment on all property in downtown setting several important goals with quality of life as the underlying theme: building a lasting constituency for downtown; recruiting investors, retailers and tenants while retaining those already downtown; making downtown clean, safe and attractive; and promoting downtown as the place to live, work and play.

The Downtown Redevelopment Authority is a not-for-profit local government corporation. The primary goals of the Authority are to alleviate blight and to encourage sound growth of the residential, retail, and commercial sectors in downtown through the design and construction of improved streetscape enhancements, pedestrian amenities, public infrastructure upgrades, parkland improvements, and historic preservation.

Central Houston Civic Improvement, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization tasked with raising funds for specific projects to improve the physical realm and quality of life in downtown.

Central Houston is the primary provider of personnel to these four entities and is an equal opportunity employer, encouraging applicants from a diversity of backgrounds.
