Q1 2018 Downtown Houston Market Report

The Downtown real estate market continues to be very active and on the road to recovery. The year is off to a busy start with one office building sale listing (1001 McKinney), two major planned office tower renovations (Bank of America Center, Houston Center (4 buildings)), two hotels (AC Hotel by Marriott, Hyatt Place Hotel) and two residential properties (Marlowe, Camden Downtown) under construction; one completed residential property (1711 Caroline), and the announcement of a new park planned for southern Downtown. Although robust leasing activity in 2017 significantly reduced the downtown sublease space, sublease inventory remains significant and increased in the first quarter with Hess Corporation’s addition of 123,000-SF (1501 McKinney), Halcon Resources’ addition of 52,000-SF (Wells Fargo Plaza), EP Energy’s addition of almost 32,000-SF (1001 Louisiana) to the sublease market, among other factors. Hess’ additional sublease space was due to the recently announced 300 job cuts across Houston, including in Downtown, to cut costs. However, sublease availability has been steadily declining and is at its lowest since the peak of the downturn in 2016 and we expect to see the continuing growth trend in leasing activity, albeit slower than in 2017. In the first quarter, oil prices rose to the highest level since 2015, nearing $70 in January. Houston continues to move towards full recovery with slow but steady job growth, and the Houston region is forecasted to gain 45,000 jobs in 2018, primarily in non-energy sectors.

There is cautious optimism in the market’s road to recovery. The performance of the Downtown market signals that the recession has bottomed out and that the worst of the energy downturn may be over, as the market continues to show signs of improvement: free rent and other concession packages are gradually leveling out; oil prices comfortably remain in the $60 to $70 a barrel range; and leasing activity continues to be positive. While job growth in the energy sector is expected to remain flat in the short-term, Downtown also continues to show major signs of renewed market confidence, as several Downtown firms announced staff and footprint expansions in the first quarter. KPMG is hiring more employees and increasing its footprint by 11,916-SF in 811 Main, bringing its total footprint to 126,433-SF; Mitsubishi Heavy Industries Ltd (LyondellBasell Tower, 1221 McKinney) plans to increase the number of employees in its oil and gas division as it adds projects to its portfolio. Others include: Deloitte LLP; Accenture; Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP (following its merger with Hunton & Williams LLP); Arundo Analytics, which is set to double its headcount; Downtown incubator, Station Houston; and Alvarez & Marsal (after its recent acquisition of TRCG Advisers). Downtown has also seen major M&A activity particularly among law firms, which could potentially bring in more employees into Downtown. Downtown continues to attract a growing number of co-working and collaborative spaces, and promote entrepreneurship and innovation. The recent opening of WeWork is expected to bring in an influx of entrepreneurs, new small businesses, and satellite campuses of major firms. Facebook also recently held a free Community Boost event in Downtown at the Houston Public Library’s Julia Ideson Building at 550 McKinney St. Houston is the second city for the Community Boost event to help improve digital skills critical to growing businesses.

Flight to quality continues to spur major capital investments in renovations, repositioning older buildings to compete with trophy towers, and acting as a major talent recruiting tool for their tenants. Significant renovations continue to deliver competitive space to existing and potential tenants. Two major renovation plans totaling over $65 million were announced in the first quarter. Brookfield Properties recently announced details of its $50+ million renovation plans for the recently acquired Houston Center. Bank of America Tower will undergo a $15 million renovation starting in spring 2018. Downtown continues to see an uptick in leasing activity, and a diverse group of tenant entrants and expansions. Major leases recorded in the first quarter include the following: Jackson & Walker renewed and expanded to 77,015-SF in 5 Houston Center; BB&T Scott & Stringfellow opened its first Houston office at Two Allen Center; Royal Bank of Canada (RBC) is moving Downtown and consolidating from Williams Tower and 5 Post Oak into the 36th and 37th floors of 609 Main in mid-summer 2018, occupying 54,000-SF; Yetter Coleman relocated its Downtown headquarters from 2 Houston Center to the 41st floor (24,494-SF) of 811 Main; and White & Case LLP opened its first Houston office in Two Allen Center. United Airlines completed its relocation from 1600 Smith to 225,000-SF in 609 Main. Downtown’s Main Street was also named Houston’s most expensive street for office leases.

Defying market conditions, Downtown’s newest residential properties have been doing well. There continues to be robust interest in living Downtown, with the residential market recording an occupancy rate of 71.6 percent (at the end of Q1), even with the delivery of 6 new residential buildings in the last 15 months. Just shy of a year of being completed, Market Square Tower reached 90 percent occupancy in December 2017—a milestone achieved three months short of the developer’s projected 15-month timeline, and amid market conditions. With over 8 months to completion, Marlowe condo building is already over 75 percent sold, further signaling increased demand for Downtown living. Downtown was named the hottest rental submarket in Houston by the reputed ApartmentData.com, in its February 2018 report. Downtown’s high rank was due to the new property deliveries (and their unique amenities), rental rate growth and absorption, and strong leasing activity. Downtown was attributed with a 12.3 percent annualized growth from November to January, about 5 percentage points (60 percent) higher than the next highest submarket.

The Downtown hospitality market also continues to perform beyond expectations, as Downtown attracts a growing number of business and tourism visitors. Houston saw 21.8 million visitors in 2017, a 6 percent increase over 2016, breaking records for the third consecutive year. Growth in international visitors was credited to major events like the 2017 Super Bowl LI and the World Series championship. In addition, 249 future conventions and meetings were booked in 2017, representing more than 802,850 room nights, up about 5 percent from the record 765,401 room nights booked in 2016. During the first week in March, Downtown drew more than 4,300 executives and top policy officials from over 70 countries for IHS Markit’s CERAWeek, perhaps the most prominent global energy conference, at the Hilton Americas Hotel Downtown. Attendance was up about 20 percent from last year’s 3,500+ attendees.
Market Overview

RESIDENTIAL

1711 Caroline, a 5-story, 220-unit mid-rise residential building by Leon Capital Group is now leasing, and had their first set of move-ins just after the end of the first quarter. The Class A tower will be built on part of a 3-acre site a block from Toyota Center, with a 20,000-SF amenity deck. The east-west orientation of the Ziegler Cooper-designed tower will create a more energy-efficient exposure of the facades and maximize views to Downtown and the adjacent Root Memorial Square Park. (HBJ, Chronicle, Bisnow)

Less than a year after opening, Downtown’s tallest residential high-rise, Market Square Tower, located at 777 Preston, reached 90 percent occupancy in December 2017, much faster than anticipated. Despite the market conditions, the leasing milestone was achieved three months short of Woodbranch Investments Corp.’s projected 15-month timeline and signals robust interest in living Downtown. (Bisnow, Chronicle, RNR)

HOUSTON SEES EVEN MORE VISITORS IN 2017, AIMING FOR 25M BY 2020

“After beating its previous goal two years early, Houston First Corp. is now aiming for 25 million visitors to Houston by 2020. The city is on its way to that goal with an estimated 21.8 million domestic and international combined visits to Houston in 2017. Of that total, an estimated 18.3 million visits were from domestic travelers, up 6 percent from 2016. Leisure travelers accounted for about 73 percent of the domestic visits, 15 percent were for business, and 12 percent fell outside those two categories. "On the heels of a highly successful year for Houston, beginning with the Super Bowl and ending with a World Series championship, it is no surprise that our city continues to capture the attention of more and more people who live elsewhere" – Mayor Sylvester Turner. "The Visit Houston team booked 429 future conventions and meetings in 2017, representing more than 802,850 room nights, up about 5 percent from the record 765,401 room nights booked in 2016. Again, the organizations cited the 2017 Super Bowl—and the downtown projects completed just in time for the big game—as factors driving that growth. ..." —Bisnow

BIG FOUR ACCOUNTING FIRM TO EXPAND DOWNTOWN HOUSTON FOOTPRINT

“KPMG is taking more space—and hiring more employees—in its downtown Houston office. The accounting and professional services firm is building out an additional 11,916 SF in 811 Main, formerly known as BG Group Place. According to a KPMG spokesperson, the move is due to the growth of the firm’s tax and advisory services practice, as well as the firm’s increased headcount. It’s unclear how many new employees KPMG has hired; those figures weren’t disclosed. The company currently occupies 114,517 square feet and will move into the additional space in June. The building permits list the cost of buildout at $720,000. KPMG is the city’s fourth-largest accounting firm when ranked by CPAs, according to HBJ research. As of March 9, the company has 450 certified public accountants and 1,450 full-time employees in Houston." —HBJ

NEW GREEN SPACE SPROUTING UP IN DOWNTOWN HOUSTON

If you live or work downtown, you will soon have another place to enjoy the outdoors. The city announced it is building a new green space near the Toyota Center. The public park will occupy three-fourths of a block near Bell, San Jacinto, Leeland, and Fannin streets. The remaining one-fourth serves as a parking area for South Texas College of Law faculty and staff. This project supports Plan Downtown—a 20-year vision plan for the downtown area that was approved last November—by creating an open space to promote visitor appeal, business climate, livability, and connectivity. Construction of the new park is expected to begin in mid-2019 and should open in the summer of 2020...." —Culturemap

40-STORY MARKET SQUARE TOWER FILLS UP FASTER THAN EXPECTED

“Apartment renters have claimed more than 90 percent of the units in downtown’s tallest residential project: The 40-story Market Square Tower that gained national attention for its glass-bottomed sky pool hovering above Preston Street. The leasing milestone, reached in December, shaved three months off Woodbranch Investments Corp.’s projected 15-month timeline and signals downtown is no longer limited to 9-to-5 office workers and theater goers. Bars and restaurants, food halls and parks are catering to a growing population, thanks to incentives provided by the Downtown Living Initiative. “I really enjoy the way downtown is coming back,” Woodbranch Investments CEO Philip Schneidau said. “In the evening, people are walking around in Discovery Green, and Market Square Park. It’s really getting to be a nice neighborhood feel to it after hours, versus the business feel during the day.” Downtown has grown to about 6,000 residential units, up from 2,500 at the start of 2014... A CVS store recently opened on the ground floor of the garage.” —Chronicle

HOUSTON NAMED NO. 2 FOR NEW, EXPANDED CORPORATE FACILITIES

“Once again, Houston and Texas are among the top areas for corporate relocations and expansions in the nation, according to Site Selection magazine. Houston ranked as the No. 2 metro in the Atlanta-based magazine's 2017 Governor's Cup, which recognizes the top states and metros for economic development. The Houston-Woodlands-Sugar Land Metropolitan Statistical Area logged 196 new and expanded corporate facilities. Texas, meanwhile, ranked as the No. 1 state by sheer number of projects for the sixth year in a row. A main reason companies choose Texas, Gov. Greg Abbott said on Site Selection magazine, is its workforce. “I asked them directly why they keep opening facilities in Texas, ... they were immediate and direct in their response: They said it’s the top-quality workforce.” ...“Houston is the most diverse city in the U.S. and companies thrive in our region,” Bob Harvey, president and CEO of the Greater Houston Partnership. “We are powered by a highly-skilled and well-trained talent base that enjoys an excellent quality of life. All these factors, coupled with a low-cost of doing business, offer global companies vast opportunities for growth and investment.” Houston has ranked among the top three metros since 2011.” —HBJ

HOUSTON TAKES 4 OF 10 SPOTS ON TEXAS MONTHLY’S 2018 BEST NEW RESTAURANTS LIST

“The latest concepts from local chefs Hugo Ortega, Ronnie Killen, Justin Yu and Ryan Lachaine are among the honorees on Texas Monthly's “2018’s 10 Best New Restaurants in Texas” list. Ortega's Xochi—which opened on the ground floor of the Marriott Marquis in late January 2017—tops the list. Texas Monthly calls the concept “the most fascinating restaurant to have opened in Texas in 2017” and “yet another milestone in the career of 53-year-old Ortega,” who was named Best Chef in the Southwest in last year’s James Beard Awards.... Justin Yu's Oxheart replacement, Theodore Rex, is No. 6. After closing Oxheart last March, Yu transformed the location into the new concept, which opened in October. Texas Monthly describes Theodore Rex as eclectic with an “accessible, changing menu,” noting Yu's “food is as innovative as ever and a lot more approachable.” ...Among the honorable mentions, Texas Monthly recognized Houston Astros owner Jim Crane's dual concepts Osso & Kristalla and Potente across from Minute Maid Park.” —HBJ

THESE ARE THE TOP 5 HOTTEST HOUSTON SUBMARKETS FOR APARTMENTS

ApartmentData.com, a data website that tracks the multifamily industry, named Downtown as the hottest rental submarket in Houston. “The report looked at a combination of rental rate growth and absorption over the past three months and attributed downtown with a 12.3 percent annualized growth from November through January. Bruce McClenny, president of ApartmentData.com, explained downtown’s high rank is due to new properties that have come on the market, such as Aris Market Square, which opened in September 2017... In relation to other parts of the city, downtown didn’t have much supply to begin with, McClenny said. Currently there are 23 properties downtown with almost 6,000 units while two years ago the supply was about half of that....” —HBJ

METRO HEARS SUGGESTIONS FOR NEW COMMUTER BUS SERVICE

As Houston’s commuting patterns change, the Downtown Management District is pitching a new transportation proposal that could include a major expansion of park-and-ride bus service...The Management District’s Transportation Committee is floating a new plan called Metro MAX. The proposal includes seven-day-a-week service from Metro’s park and ride lots with commuter buses running in both directions. Speaking before Metro’s Strategic Planning Committee, District Executive Director Bob Eury said a lot of people who live downtown now actually work out in the suburbs. “And it’s not all sort of the way it’s been where I live in the suburbs and come to work in the central part of the city,” added Eury. “The game has changed on us at this point.” Metro board member Christof Spieler said Houston already has the infrastructure in place to implement some of those ideas fairly quickly: “I think it would be a very worthwhile thing for us to do, to basically corridor by corridor, look at where are the low-hanging fruits in moving to this”... Metro said it’s currently reviewing the District’s suggestions as it develops a new regional transit plan. Metro CEO Tom Lambert said they’ve also brought TxDOT into the discussion...” —Houston Public Media

FINDING THE MOST ‘ENERGIZING’ CITY FOR YOUR NEXT CONVENTION

“It was an incredible year for dining across the U.S. in 2017. With chefs from New York, Chicago and San Francisco moving to smaller markets like Denver, Raleigh, Seattle and Charleston (among others), culinary innovation is booming in cities big and small. But which food town had the biggest growth spurt this year? We’ve asked editors around the country to make a case for the city they believe had the biggest year in food by assessing the number of exciting new openings, award recognition and national media attention. Then we let some of the top food media brass weigh in on which locales were most exciting... No. 13: Houston, TX...While Hurricane Harvey cast a dark shadow over the city for much of 2017, one ray of light continued to be the growth and diversity of Houston’s exploding restaurant scene. Hugo Ortega ended his six-year nominee streak with a James Beard Award win for Best Chef: Southwest and garnered national notice from Food & Wine, Thrillist and The NY Times for his upscale Oaxacan restaurant Xochi. Justin Yu (formerly of Oxheart, currently of Theodore Rex) broadened his reach via a collaborative venture with local craft cocktail king Bobby Heugel (Anvil, The Pastry War) at Better Luck Tomorrow.
